About the Organiser

The Indian Chamber of Food and Agriculture is the apex body in India, working on business, policy, and development agenda and serving as a global platform for trade facilitation, partnerships, technology, and agribusiness services. A proactive approach helps ICFA discern critical challenges emerging in Indian agriculture and create opportunities for development, value addition, and international trade to accelerate growth in the food and agriculture sectors globally. ICFA, with more than 25 industry Working Groups and sector-specific Business Councils, represents the interests of key stakeholders at the national level and, through its international platforms and partnerships, facilitates India's global engagement in the food and agriculture sectors.

For enhanced sustainability, food safety, and quality standards, ICFA has taken up the Agriculture Stewardship Program by launching the Healthy Food Initiative program and the Good Agriculture Practices (GAP) project. In a short period of more than seven years, the Chamber has signed MoUs with the ICAR, APEDA, NRDC, RAKEZ Group, ASYAD Group, University of California, University of Maryland, Michigan State University, Iowa State University, Western Australia University, German Agribusiness Alliance, Borlaug Institute for South Asia, African Asian Rural Development Organization, NASSCOM, Sociedad Rural Argentina (SRA), FAMATO, CCI Pau Béarn, IFPRI, etc. Through international partnerships, ICFA envisions mobilizing technologies and investments that will catalyze agribusiness and agri-startups.

About Global AgroTech 2026

With the fast changing global technology, business and economic environment, the significance of quick information access and exposure to latest products, technologies and marketing opportunities has assumed critical importance in order to deal with the challenges and tapping the opportunities. Global Agrotech 2026 aims to provide an opportunity for participants to showcase products, services, schemes and technologies to potential users and farmers. The event will highlight the investment opportunities and growth potential that exists in Agriculture sector in the state of Uttar Pradesh. Understanding the importance of a national level agro-tech event in the country's largest state, Uttar Pradesh and the impact it can have on the key stake holders, ICFA in consultation with all the supporting bodies is proposing to organize organising Global Agrotech 2026 in Lucknow (India) from 26-28 February 2026 at the campus of ICAR-Indian Sugarcane Research Institute, Lucknow. ISRI is the world's premier research institute on sugarcane under the Government of India's Indian Council of Agricultural Research.

Objectives of Global AgroTech 2026

- Provide exposure to farmers about the latest agri input products, technologies, farming practices, government schemes, marketing and post harvest management.
- Provide better awareness among the key stakeholders, industries and investors about the agricultural potential of the state, business opportunities available and the scope for investment.
- Provide platform to the national and international organisations in food, agriculture, animal husbandry, horticulture, agribusiness and rural development for linkages and partnerships.
- Provide a unique opportunity to reach out to over 10,000 progressive farmers from the State and other key stakeholders in food and agriculture system in the country.
- Provide valuable opportunity for interaction with the top Government of India and the State government officials and policy makers to discuss issues and explore business opportunities in the State.
- Provide platform to industry, government, investors and Institutions to share their vision of agriculture and prepare a roadmap for growth and investments in food, dairy, poultry, horticulture and agribusinesses in the State as well as showcase the achievements, products, technologies and offerings.

Promotion

An extensive publicity and promotion is planned to spread the message across the country, in all the States of India and abroad. Besides farmers we also expect about 10,000 rural functionaries, extension workers and government departments, academic and research, industry, institutions and international organisations to be visiting the three day event.

Pavilions

The entire exhibition would be put up in various constructed stalls with covered hangers of international quality, having water proofing. The stalls would be of various sizes depending on the requirements of the exhibitors. The entire event would be put up in various dedicated hangers. Some hangers may be added or merged as per booking availability. Large farm machinery would be displayed in open area, earmarked for the purpose. There will also be provisions made for live demonstration.

- Agri-inputs Pavilion
- Food Processing and Dairy Pavilion
- States Pavilion
- Agri Start-ups Pavilion
- Technology Pavilion
- Horticulture Pavilion
- Poultry and Fisheries Pavilion
- MSME and OPOD Pavilion
- Farm Machinery Pavilion
- Rural Market Pavillion

GOVERNMENT

INITIATIVES TO PROMOTE AGRO INVESTMENT

- High power Committee on Public Private Partnerships
- Simplification of prevalent rules and procedures.
- Separate sectoral identification of agricultural produce and animal husbandry resources.
- Financial support and provisions of linkages like raw material, storage, transportation and marketing for establishment of agro industries
- Special facilities for export of agro products. Farm mechanization, precision farming and agro processing major thrust areas.
- Focussed policies for promoting poultry and dairy sector with a slew of incentives by the State.
- Special schemes for promoting agro and food industries through creation of AEZ and Food Parks etc.

PARTICIPATION

Being organised in an agriculturally high potential state of the country, a large turnout, both of individual visitors and of exhibitors is expected from across the country. We expect over 10,000 farmers and rural functionaries, extension workers, government departments, academic and research people, industry executives and VIP categories participating in three day event.

As in the past events organised in Lucknow by ICFA, the State Government had mobilize progressive farmers to the event from different parts of the state. Under Exposure Visit Scheme, farmers and extension functionaries from other States too can also be mobilized. An extensive publicity and promotional campaign is planned to create awareness among farmers and other stake holders about the event.

State Excellence Awards 2026

ICFA in consultation with the State Government and District Administration will felicitate 1 farmer from each of the 75 Districts of the State. District Administration will nominate the farmers for their innovation, outstanding performance or practices. Each awardee will be felicitated with a memento and cash reward @INR11,000.
